INTRODUCTION

To The Reader:

This volume of election results from the 1990 primary and general elections is one of a series of publications from the Office of the Secretary of State, going back over many years, that gives the official tallies for election contests. Candidates, scholars, politicians and others interested in the conduct of elections in Vermont have found these books critically valuable in their efforts to understand the ever changing nature of the Vermont political environment.

This volume is based on the official returns of votes to the Secretary of State by the town clerks following each of the two major elections of 1990. In some cases our totals differ slightly from the totals in the state canvass reports prepared at the time of the elections, correcting discrepancies discovered as we prepared this publication.

Once again this year's volume includes the results of the races for state senate and house of representatives.

We had a statewide recount in the democratic primary for U.S. Representative. The countywide recount figures are included in Appendix I. There were five recounts for the Vermont House of Representatives in the general election. The totals in those districts reflect the recount totals except for Chittenden 7-7 and Franklin-Grand Isle-1 where the recount totals are aggregated and the original vote is broken out by polling place. See Appendix II for recount numbers.

Because of the number of uncontested races in the 1990 primary election, we have chosen to condense these reports. Instead of printing a separate report for each primary candidate, all the candidates running in uncontested races in a party have been grouped together and printed in a single report.

The general election results indicate that the Libertarian party has lost its status as a major political party, because none of the candidates for statewide office received at least 5% of the vote. Accordingly, Libertarian candidates will not participate in the 1992 primaries. On the other hand, the Liberty Union party has regained its major party status, which it lost in 1988. Assuming the party fulfills the organizational requirements of the statute, its candidates will participate in the 1992 primaries.

If you have comments on this volume or suggestions for future publications, we would be happy to hear from you.

Sincerely,

James H. Douglas
